

If you are interested in conducting further research on Wheatley Peters, below are several archives with significant holdings related to Wheatley Peters.

American Antiquarian Society
John Carter Brown Library
Connecticut Historical Society
Library Company of Philadelphia
Massachusetts Historical Society
Moorland-Spingarn Library @Howard University
Newport (Rhode Island) Historical Society
Rhode Island Historical Society
Chestnut Foundation, Cambridge University
Scottish Record Office, Edinburgh
Haverford College Library
Staffordshire Records Office, UK
Historical Society of Pennsylvania
Boston Public Library

Here are several online resources:

Voyages: The Trans-Atlantic Slave Trade Database <https://www.slavevoyages.org/>

First Blacks in the Americas <http://firstblacks.org/en/>

Africans in America <https://www.pbs.org/wgbh/aia/home.html>

Africans Americans and the End of Slavery in Massachusetts

<https://www.masshist.org/endofslavery/index.php?id=57>

The Poetry Foundation [https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poets/Phillis-wheatley](https://www.poetryfoundation.org/poets/ Phillis-wheatley)

Guidelines about Language -- P. Gabrielle Foreman, et al. "Writing about Slavery/Teaching About Slavery: This Might Help"

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1A4TEdDgYsIX-hlKezLodMIM71My3KTN0zxRv0IQTOQs/edit>